Shipping your I-20
Check one of the following options to receive your I-20:

☐ The Graduate College airmails all I-20s being mailed overseas.
   Advantage: Free of charge to student.
   Disadvantage: No tracking number; long wait time; document may not arrive to the destination.

☐ eShip Global
   Advantage: Tracking number; short delivery time (depends on each country); document will arrive to destination; often cheaper than shipping directly with DHL, FedEx, UPS, etc.
   Disadvantage: Student pays for shipping cost.

Note: You should register for eShip Global immediately after submitting your financial documents.
eShip Global works with UPS, FedEx, and DHL. If you decide to use eShip Global, you will be responsible for the shipping payment, which often comes at reduced prices. To register for eShip Global, please follow the instructions at https://www.ohio.edu/graduate/prospective-international-students/i-20-and-ds-2019.
